Hands—On Workshops:

- How to Build an Outdoor Wood-fired Masonry Bake Oven

Planning, designing, and building an out door bake oven with base, floor, dome, arch doorway, chimney, and finishing work. This his hands-on! AND: learn how to do finishing work in stucco, brick, and man-made stone. Instructor: Gene Padgitt, Certified Heater Mason, CCS, NFI, CFI, and assistants.

- How to Build an Outdoor Wood-fired Cob Oven

Learn this ancient technique that is inexpensive and really works! How to make cob with clay, straw, and water, how to build an oven base, shaping the cob, and curing. Bake oven recipes included with the class.

Instructor: Gary Hart, Certified Heater Mason, CCS, NFI and assistants.

- Pellet Stove Installation and Maintenance. This is one of our most-asked for classes, so be sure not to miss it! Get your questions answered here!

Instructor: Ron Washkowski, CCS, NFI

Bring your own masonry tools and protective gear with you!

We won't have any extra on site. Bring hard hat, goggles, gloves, ear protection, and pointing tools.

NOTE: No children under 18 allowed by law. We will be following OSHA safety regulations.

CEU's from NFI, MHA & CSIA will be applied for

Auction on Saturday night:

Get great deals on your favorite chimney products donated by industry suppliers and manufacturers. With our real auctioneer, Steve Hoover. Bring your unwanted items to the auction! All proceeds go towards educational events.
