

Lopez Community Land Trust [LCLT] Natural Building Workshop _ Cob Oven

Project:

An outdoor gathering/cooking space in Cam's Memorial Garden that services LCLT members, visitors, and the greater Lopez community.

Program:

Wood-fired oven made of cob and outdoor cooking area with protective structure.

Dates: [2009]

September 26th-27th _ Introduction to cob, Base and formwork construction

October 3rd-4th _ Cob oven construction

October 10th-11th _ Natural plasters and finishes

October 17th-18th _ Introduction to carpentry, Roof construction

Times:

9:00am-5:00pm

Costs:

$50/weekend – does not include ferry ride or accommodations

Site:

The workshop is taking place at 25 Tuatara Road, the site of LCLT's new office and next door to Common Ground; a recently completed neighborhood of 11 single-family, strawbale, net-zero energy homes developed by LCLT. The oven is to be built on an existing rock wall east of the Lopez Community Land Trust 2office building in the garden.

Please RSVP as spots are limited:

nyomtov@gmail.com

Site of future cob oven

